INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Right Track's Education Initiative - Skills for the Future Programme has been designed to support young people aged 12-16 years, who are not engaged with mainstream education for a variety of reasons.

The Projects are delivered from premises in Bridgeton and Drumchapel, offering a wide catchment across the City and from Coatbridge and Bellshill in North Lanarkshire.

All projects aim to support young people to:

- Develop patterns of time-keeping and attendance
- Stabilise their lifestyle
- Re-engage in learning
- Develop confidence, motivation and self-esteem
- Identify careers that they would like to pursue
- Experience work with local Employers
- Develop the skills sought after by Employers
- Accept responsibility
- Develop belief in their own potential

all projects offer

- High staff to learner ratios
- Varied learning options
- Intense action planning and goal setting
- Personal and group "challenge" activity
- Community activity
- Core skill support
- Counselling and support from specialist external agencies
- Practical project activity
- Research projects
- IT, digital and video projects
- Preparation for independent living
- Cooking and fitness
